

Children can respond to ideas

Children can describe what they think or feel about their own and others' work

Year 1 objectives

Children can use a variety of materials and process to communicate their ideas and meanings, and design and make images and artefacts

Children can use computer Art programmes