

Children will explore ideas and collect visual and other information for their work

Children can comment on differences in others' work and suggest ways of improving their own

Year 2 objectives

Children can use a variety of materials and process to communicate their ideas and meanings, and design and make images and artefacts

Children can develop their skills with computer Art programmes and operate simple tools