

Science Principles

At Mossford Green Primary School:

Children play an active role in discussions, questioning and practical science activities.

Children are engaged in purposeful learning.

Children make progress by building up skills.

Children work collaboratively.

Children have additional opportunities by going on school trips and from visits from experts.

Children's work is celebrated and shared on displays around the school.

Children will use key scientific vocabulary.